Summary

Correspondence Series: This collection consists of the federal records of the President’s Advisory Board on Race. The Advisory Board was established in June 1997 by Executive Order 13050 as part of President Clinton’s Initiative on Race (PIR). The Advisory Board advised the President on matters involving race and racial reconciliation. After submitting its final report to the President, One America in the 21st Century: Forging a New Future, the Board terminated on September 30, 1998. As a result of the report and building on the efforts of the PIR, the President established the White House Office on the President’s Initiative for One America. The Correspondence Series contains four subseries: [PIR Correspondence], PIR Correspondence, Invitations, and Administrative Correspondence.
