Summary

Programs and Forums Series: This collection consists of the federal records of the President’s Advisory Board on Race. The Programs and Forums Series includes correspondence, memorandums, background materials, organization brochures, and notes concerning forums and programs that shared the same goals as the PIR. Also included is information about the Corporate Forums, which gave businesses the opportunity to discuss strategies to create a racially diversified work place.

Record Type

Textual