Summary

These Clinton Presidential Records were declassified in response to a Mandatory Declassification Review request for records related to the December 2, 1998 visit of Prime Minister of Pakistan Nawaz Sharif. Records to be released are duplicates of a previously declassified memorandum of conversation and administrative paperwork related to records management. Topics include the former Pakistan and bilateral relations. These documents are from the NSC Records Management System PRS File Series. This release includes 19 pages of declassified materials and ten additional pages.
