Summary

This collection is a continuation of Segment 1 for the speechwriting files of Michael Waldman.

Scope and Content Note

The materials in FOIA 2006-0469-F (2) are a selective body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials. Michael Waldman was Assistant to the President and Director of Speechwriting from 1995-1999. His responsibilities were writing and editing nearly 2,000 speeches, which included four State of the Union speeches and two Inaugural Addresses. From 1993 -1995 he served as Special Assistant to the President for Policy Coordination. FOIA request 2006-0469-F (2) consists of copies of speeches and speech drafts, talking points, memoranda, background material, correspondence, reports, handwritten notes, articles, clippings, and presidential schedules. Most of the material contained in this collection was used to assist in writing speeches. A large volume of this collection was for the State of the Union speeches. Many of the speech drafts are heavily annotated with additions or deletions. There are many articles and clippings in this collection.
