Summary

These Clinton Presidential Records were declassified in response to a Mandatory Declassification Review request for all exemption 1 closures in Freedom of Information Act case 2006-0192-F (All documents related to Rwanda in the files of MacArthur Deshazer, Jr.). MacArthur Deshazer, Jr. was a Director of African Affairs in the National Security Council. The request was for all records related to Rwanda in 1993 and 1994. The information being released are primarily Department of State cables related to Rwanda and diplomatic initiatives to address the situation. Included are summaries of meetings that Assistant Secretary Richard Moose held with Belgium, Burundi, and Zaire among others. Topics include the gamut of operations and policy in Rwanda.
