Scope and Content Note

The materials in FOIA 2013-0664-F are a selective body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials. FOIA request 2013-0664-F consists of printed records from electronic databases that recorded Barbra Streisand’s entry to the White House, and attendance at events that included President Clinton. President Clinton stated that his long friendship with Barbra Streisand began during the 1992 campaign. Streisand was apart of the 1993 Inaugural Activities, famously singing “Evergreen” at the 1993 Presidential Gala. Streisand and Clinton’s mother, Virginia Kelley, shared a special friendship before Kelley’s death. Streisand attended Kelley’s funeral service in Hot Springs, Arkansas in 1994. The majority of the records produced for this FOIA were located in databases that recorded all of President Clinton’s activities including personal activities and participants. As a result, many responsive records have been withdrawn as Personal Record. The majority of the records produced for this FOIA are considered personal in-part or in-whole which resulted in many closures related to personal privacy.
