

Federal Records - President's Advisory Board on Race – Correspondence

In June 1997, the President's Advisory Board on Race was established by Executive Order 13050 as part of President Clinton's Initiative on Race (PIR). The PIR was an effort to prepare the country to live as one America in the 21st century. Advisory Board members included: John Hope Franklin, Linda Chavez-Thompson, Suzan D. Johnson Cook, Thomas Kean, Angela E. Oh, Robert Thomas, and William F. Winter. The Advisory Board advised the President on matters involving race and racial reconciliation. After submitting its final report to the President, One America in the 21st Century: Forging a New Future, the Board terminated on September 30, 1998. As a result of the report and building on the efforts of the PIR, the President established the White House Office on the President's Initiative for One America.

The Correspondence Series contains four subseries: [PIR Correspondence], PIR Correspondence, Invitations, and Administrative Correspondence. The [PIR Correspondence] Subseries, was placed in brackets because much of the correspondence (including resumes, letters from interested public, and correspondence between Advisory Board members and PIR staff) is addressed to Judith A. Winston, the executive director of the PIR. Winston received correspondence at the Office of the General Counsel early in the history of the PIR. The PIR Correspondence Subseries is much like its bracketed predecessor, however this subseries holds more routine correspondence including mail logs that were kept by Winston, and standard thank you letters sent by the executive director. The Invitations Subseries holds invitations submitted to the PIR by organizations, colleges, and businesses, often requesting the presence of an Advisory Board member or PIR staff at an event or lecture concerning race. The Administrative Correspondence Subseries is organized alphabetically and includes letters from the public concerning racial reconciliation and correspondence from VIPs to PIR staff and Advisory Board members.
