- U.S. efforts to date have not significantly disrupted the Al-Qida terrorist network nor degraded its global operational capability; (S)
- A widespread network of organized terrorist supporters exists in North America that could be activated as a potential terrorist presence; (S)
- Individuals residing illegally in the United States are aiding and abetting terrorist groups; (S) and
- There are shortfalls in our border monitoring system with Canada that could be addressed through implementation of additional cooperative programs with Canada. (C)

The Principals agreed to examine three propositions in response to the CSG review conclusions.

EO 13526 1.4c, 3.3(b)(1)

- Second, laws against potential foreign terrorist groups in the U.S. should be vigorously enforced consistent with concern for civil liberties, including prohibitions on fund raising, immigration violations, and the prosecution of potential foreign terrorists engaged in petty criminal activity in the U.S. (Action: Justice) (C)
- Third, the U.S. should improve its efforts to prevent potential foreign terrorists from gaining entry into the U.S. or Canada and should increase efforts to remove such individuals already living in the U.S. and Canada. (Action: Justice, Treasury, State) (S)

The Principals tasked NSC and OMB Deputies to lead a process to assess resource implications of those three propositions, and make recommendations for Principals, which would include time critical steps to be taken in the FY 00 budget and longer term steps that would be supported in the FY 01-05 budget. Agency: DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
Bureau: PROCUREMENT
Heading: Other Procurement, Air Force
FY 2001 Budget
Appendix Page: 284
FY 2001
Pending Request: $7,699,127,000
Proposed Amendment: $20,000,000
Revised Request: $7,719,127,000

This amendment would increase the pending FY 2001 request for Other Procurement, Air Force by $20 million as part of the Administration's overall request for increased resources for intelligence community counterterrorism activities. These activities are explained in greater detail in the accompanying classified annex.

The Department of Defense will also realign $67.1 million within this procurement account to finance increased activities against high-priority terrorist threats in FY 2001. Source funds are available as a result of program repricing and reductions to lower priority programs.

Taken together with reductions proposed in accompanying budget amendments, this amendment would not increase the proposed budget totals.
