

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 12, 1993

Dear Mr. Prime Minister:

I enjoyed our talk in New York last month and look forward to seeing you again in Seattle during the November APEC meetings.

A good friend of mine, the Reverend Billy Graham, will be in Japan and I would be grateful if you could extend all appropriate courtesies to him during his visit. I have asked Ambassador Mondale to assist in his visit and his staff can assist you in any necessary arrangements.

I understand our discussions on the economic framework are moving forward and I hope we can use our meeting in November to resolve outstanding issues.

Again, thank you for extending a warm welcome to Billy Graham.

Sincerely,

His Excellency
Morihiro Hosokawa
Prime Minister of Japan
Tokyo
